Part Six:
Joining the Victory
Procession

1. SEEING the victorious wedding procession(3:6-11)

THE SHULAMITE

"Who is this coming out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all the merchant's fragrant powders? Behold, it is Solomon's couch, with sixty valiant men around it, of the valiant of Israel. They all hold swords, being expert in war. Every man has his sword on his thigh Because of fear in the night. Of the wood of Lebanon, Solomon the King made himself a palanquin: He made its pillars of silver, its support of gold, its seat of purple, its interior paved with love by the daughters of Jerusalem. Go forth, O daughters of Zion, and see King Solomon with the crown with which his mother crowned him on the day of his wedding, the day of the gladness of his heart."

FIGURE 8: Sketch of a palanquin which probably more resembles what is meant in Song of Songs 3:9–10.

In her dream she sees Solomon coming in the victorious wedding procession to receive her and take her to their new house!

Thanks be to God,
who always leads
us in triumphal procession in Christ and through us spreads everywhere the fragrance of the knowledge of him.

2. HEARING His prophetic words to overcome the pain (4:1-5)

“Behold, you are fair, my love! Behold, you are fair! You have dove’s eyes behind your veil. Your hair is like a flock of goats, Going down from Mount Gilead. Your teeth are like a flock of shorn sheep which have come up from the washing, every one of which bears twins, and none is barren among them. Your lips are like a strand of scarlet, And your mouth is lovely. Your temples behind your veil Are like a piece of pomegranate. Your neck is like the tower of David, Built for an armory, On which hang a thousand bucklers, All shields of mighty men. Your two breasts are like two fawns, Twins of a gazelle, Which feed among the lilies.” Songs 4:1-5

Pleasant words are as an honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

Proverbs 16:24

2. HEARING His prophetic words to overcome the pain.

Song of Solomon 4:1-5

3. ENTERING with Him into His Kingdom purposes (4:6-7)

THE BELOVED

“Until the day breaks and the shadows flee away, I will go my way to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense. You are all fair, my love, and there is no spot in you. Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon. Look from the top of Amana, from the top of Senir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards. You have ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; You have ravished my heart with one look of your eyes, with one link of your necklace. How fair is your love, my sister, my spouse! How much better than wine is your love, and the scent of your perfumes than all spices! Your lips, O my spouse, drip as the honeycomb.” Song 4:6-11 (NKJV)

The background of the image is a scenic landscape at sunset or sunrise. The sky is filled with warm, golden light from the sun, which is partially obscured by clouds on the right side. The light creates a soft glow over the entire scene. In the foreground, there are dark, silhouetted hills and a body of water. A small, dark figure of a person is visible on the right side, sitting or standing near the water's edge. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

How beautiful on the mountains
are the feet of those who bring good news,
who proclaim peace, who bring good tidings,
who proclaim salvation, who say to Zion,
"Your God reigns!"

Isaiah 52:7

How Painful Love is overcome.

SEEING

We must see His victorious procession in the Spirit.

HEARING

We must hear His cleansing prophetic words over us to arise.

ENTERING

We must respond in obedience to what we have seen and heard.
