The man gets out of the car and begins juggling the knives just as two men drive by. "Man," says one guy. "I'm glad I quit drinking.

These new sobriety tests are hard."

There were four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody and Nobody.

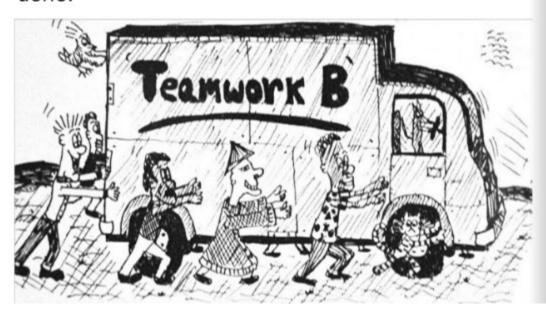

There was an important job to be done and Everybody was asked to do it.

I know I live a good, clean, spiritual life." The doctor asked, "What makes you say that?" The old man replied, "If I didn't live a good, clean life the Lord wouldn't turn the bathroom light on for me every time I get up in the middle of the night." The doctor found out the old man had been urinating in his fridge!

GOD'S WORD A WEAPON

An elderly woman had just returned to her home from an evening of religious service when she was startled by an intruder. As she caught the man in the act of robbing her home of its valuables, she yelled, "Stop! Acts 2:38!" [Turn from your sin]. The burglar stopped dead in his tracks. Then the woman calmly called the police and explained what she had done. As the officer cuffed the man to take him in, he asked the burglar, "Why did you just stand there? "Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil." Ephesians 6:11

FAITH NOT SIGHT

"For we live by faith, not by sight." 2 Corinthians 5:7

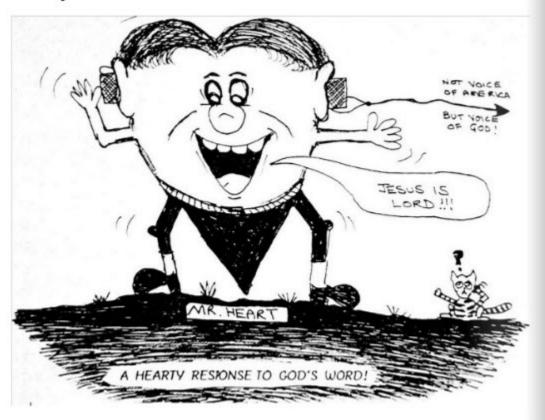

The African impala can jump to a height of over 10 feet and cover a distance of greater than 30 feet. Yet these magnificent creatures can be kept in an enclosure in any zoo with a 3-foot wall. The animals will not jump if they cannot see where their feet will fall. Faith is the ability to trust what we cannot see, and with faith we are freed from the flimsy enclosures of life that only fear allows to entrap us.

"The Christian life should be like a sword with one point, not like a broom ending in many straws. Such a single purpose forgets the past, reaches toward the future, and presses on. There is no time or place for side issues, diversions to the right or to the left. There is no place for hands on the plow with eyes looking back. Paul was a one-track man, but you can go a long way on one track!" R.A. Torrey

COMMUNICATION

"When all is said and done, more is said than done." Anon.

"The single biggest problem in communication is the illusion that it has taken place." George Bernard Shaw

Max Lucado

THE JOY OF THE LORD

"Our Lord finds our desires not too strong, but too weak. We are half-hearted creatures, fooling about with drink and sex and ambition, when infinite joy is offered to us, like an ignorant child who wants to go on making mud pies in the slum because he cannot imagine what is meant by the offer of a holiday at the sea. We are far too easily pleased." C.S.Lewis

"The trouble with many men is that they have got just enough religion to make them miserable. If there is not joy in religion, you have got a leak in your religion." Billy Sunday

OVERCOMING STRESS

"When I am consumed by my problems-stressed out about my life, my family, and my job-I actually convey the belief that I think the circumstances are more important than God's command to always rejoice." Francis Chan

"Since God intends to make you like Jesus, he will take you through the same experiences Jesus went through. That includes loneliness, temptation, stress, criticism, rejection, and many other problems." Rick Warren

HIGH PRAISES

"Most Christians believe that praising God and being thankful is good; however, many think it is optional, something to do after they have served the Lord in other ways. Some Christians only praise God when their circumstances are good and they have a reason to thank Him. The truth is that praising God is not an option. Praise has a powerful effect on the believer, the devil, and on God. It is our highest calling." Andrew Wommack

"Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a twoedged sword in their hand, to execute vengeance on the nations, and punishments on the peoples; To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron; To execute on them the written judgment— This honor have all His saints." Psalm 149:6-9 (NKJV)

PLANNING

"Let our advance worrying become advance thinking and planning." Winston Churchill

"Failing to plan is planning to fail." Alan Lakein

"Without leaps of imagination, or dreaming, we lose the excitement of possibilities. Dreaming, after all, is a form of planning." Gloria Steinem

"Think ahead. Don't let day-to-day operations drive out planning." Donald Rumsfeld

"The mark of a great church is not its seating capacity, but its sending capacity." Mike Stachura

THE HARVEST

"The harvest here is indeed great, and the laborers are few and imperfectly fitted, without much grace, for such a work. And yet grace can make a few feeble instruments the means of accomplishing great things - things greater even than we can conceive." Hudson Taylor

"Do you not say, 'There are still four months and then comes the harvest'? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for harvest!" John 4:35 (NKJV)

CROSS CULTURAL COMMUNICATION A

"We do not truly understand the gospel if we spend all of our time preaching it to Christians. The gospel is a missionary gospel. It is a communication of Good News to people and in places where the name of Christ is unknown." David Sitton

"Culture is roughly anything we do and the monkeys don't." Lord Raglan

"Culture: the cry of men in face of their destiny."
Albert Camus

CROSS CULTURAL COMMUNICATION B

One day a man asked Hudson Taylor (missionary to China) to explain why he had buttons on the back of his coat! Taylor realized then that his western-style dress was distracting his listeners from his message. He then decided to dress like a Mandarin, a Chinese teacher. He was amazed at how dressing Chinese allowed him to travel more freely and be accepted more readily by the people. Taylor's goal was not to have the Chinese become like English Christians, but to have them become Chinese Christians.

CHURCH PLANTING

Paul Harvey said, "Too many Christians are no longer fishers of men but keepers of the aquarium."

She says, "Yes, I convinced that boy in front of me in school that my religion is better than his religion." Charlie Brown asked, "Well, how did you do that?" And Lucy answers, "I hit him over the head with my lunch box."

EVANGELISM B

A fisherman from Minnesota. You see, this fisherman was very well prepared. He knew how to fish. He had everything you need to be a good fisherman. He had poles, nets, bait, and even a really nice boat, but this fisherman had a problem. You see, for all his preparation he never caught anything. Not one fish. Not one, not ever. And you know why he never caught a fish? What do you think? The answers easy: He never went fishing. He had all the knowledge and all the equipment, but he never got into the boat, he never left the dock.

EVANGELISM C

How not to do evangelism

....in sickness and in health, in this culture or another, eating monkey brains or not, with or without money, from one mud hut to another, 'til martyrdom us do part!

THE MISSIONARY MARRIAGE.

MISSIONARY SUPPORT

A missionary family was traveling from church to church raising their support. After several months of being bounced from town to town, church to church, home-to-home, they ended up staying with a pastor and his family. That Sunday morning the pastor got up and asked them if they were tired of going from home to home and sleeping in a different bed every night. The missionary got up and explained that he wasn't so bothered by using a different bed each night as he was using a different toothbrush every morning!

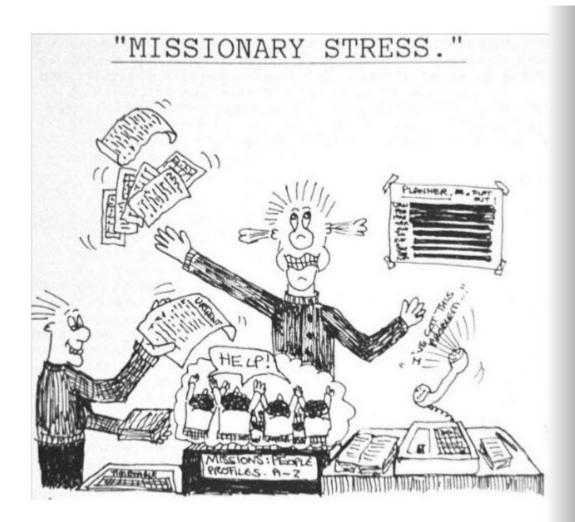

"For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain," and, "The laborer is worthy of his wages."" 1 Timothy 5:18

"It is the faith that it is the privilege of man to learn to understand, and that this is his mission. If we abandon that mission under stress we shall abandon it forever, for stress will not cease. Knowledge for the sake of understanding, not merely to prevail, that is the essence of our being. None can define its limits, or set its ultimate boundaries." Vannevar Bush

"Reality is the leading cause of stress among those in touch with it." Lily Tomlin

WORLD VISION

"Every man takes the limits of his own field of vision for the limits of the world." Arthur Schopenhauer
