

Example Family Blessings.

Example prayer for daily bloodline cleansing.

Father God, cleanse my bloodline on both my father and mother's side. Forgive us for our iniquities of idolatry, bitterness, pride, lust, greed, jealousy, anger, fear, rejection, rebellion, bloodshed, sorcery, witchcraft and so forth that have defiled us. We renounce and condemn all these iniquities and apply the precious blood of Jesus to flush out every curse and defilement and tear down all false altars. With the authority You have given me Lord I command all iniquities and related infirmities and sicknesses to be gone from my bloodline right now in the name of Jesus Christ. Father, I ask You to command Your blessings, healing and restoration over me, my family, my children and all future generations and release us into our identity and destiny in Christ. Amen.

Example blessings for your Family Prayer Altars.

Numbers 6:24-26 is the best place to start. You can use this to bless your family members at all times!

Here is a general prayer of blessing using the formula we saw in session 4. When blessing family members add on prophetic blessings that are uniquely for them – as you receive words, vision, and impressions.

“I bless you (name) in the name of Jesus, that the Father may bless you. I bless you that the peace and joy of God may come upon you and wash through every part of your being, physically, mentally, socially and spiritually. Amen.”

Example blessing for Bar Barakah (Boy's coming of age ceremony)

This can be adapted for a girl's Bat Barakah.

"Father God, I thank you for my son, Bob. Bob, you are no longer a little boy. Today you have become a man. You are well equipped with everything you need to fulfill your destiny as a man of God. Before the foundation of the earth, God Almighty planned for your life and planned for you to be a man. There is nothing that you will ever need to do to become a man, because God has made you one. Today we are simply recognizing publicly what God has done in you."

(Recognize specific character qualities in the son.)

"Bob, I have noticed in your life that God has made you very intelligent. He has also given you a gift of articulate speech and an ability to take complicated concepts and make them simple for others to understand. I believe that the Lord will use you powerfully to teach his Word to others. You also have a gift as a peacemaker. I notice that when your friends are at odds with each other, God frequently gives you just the right words to break down the walls of enmity and help them reconcile with each other. I believe that God will use you greatly in these areas of reconciliation and teaching."

"Son, I am so glad that God has given you to our family as a gift. You are a wonderful son. I love you! Today I am so proud of you. I bless you with wisdom prosper you in all that you do, and may you serve the Lord Jesus Christ all the days of your life. Today, I loose you from being your mother's little boy, and I release to you the authority and responsibility of manhood. Bob, today before God and these witnesses, as your father, I declare that you are a man. I love you, son, and I release you to fulfill your destiny in Christ."

Excerpt From Bar Barakah By Craig Hill

All other critical times of blessing will have similar blessings that are unique to the individual. This one above gives you a sense of how it will be framed.